Meet Mr. Neville Smith! An expert in his field, Mr. Smith demonstrates nearly 50 years of professional experience in his position with Education Consultancy Services Australia. As director, he is tasked with overseeing international consulting work for various educational institutions that range from early childhood education to the university level. He also assesses institutions and develops plans for them to follow.

Among his many accomplishments, Mr. Smith is particularly proud of establishing a private school for indigenous girls. In fact, he was presented with a medallion by Education Queensland in recognition of his hard work. He was also recently named a Professional of the Year in Education Administration by Worldwide Branding.

Education

- Postgraduate Diploma in Educational Administration, University of Southern Queensland
- Bachelor of Education Studies, University of Queensland
- Diploma of Teaching, Queensland University of Technology

For more information ...

Exclusive Video
Press Release
Personal Website