

WILLIAM G. YOUNG

George A. Donaldson & Sons, Inc. PRESIDENT

William G. Young's life and his work have always had one central theme: the love of family. He is the third generation to lead his family's business, George A. Donaldson & Sons, which is a resort and campground that spans more than 700 acres on Saranac Lake in New York. With a focus on customer satisfaction and ensuring a wonderful camping experience, Mr. Young guarantees a tranquil and peaceful stay by promoting good energy and a sense of community. In addition, he ensures that the park is well-maintained and safe. The entire campsite is gated, which allows for optimal privacy without taking away from the feeling of being part of the great outdoors. Mr. Young also provides all of the necessary amenities to make his visitors' stays convenient by operating a small store at the front of the resort that is stocked with last-minute items that folks may have forgotten to pack.

When Mr. Young looks back on his childhood, he recalls fond memories of his grandparents, who established the campsite. "I grew up here. It's everything I've ever known and I'm proud to carry on my grandparents' legacy," he says of his motivation to continue improving the resort and finding new ways to attract visitors. By using a business model that he hasn't seen in any other of the neighboring resorts, Mr. Young feels that he is offering a unique experience for campers at any level, from first-timers to lifetime campers.

Before taking over the reins as president of the campsite, Mr. Young pursued higher education to build the foundation of knowledge necessary to run a business. He earned a Bachelor of Science in business from Syracuse University and a Master of Science in finance from SUNY Empire State College. In addition to running the campsite, Mr. Young stays involved in his local community; he has been a member of the Kiwanis Club for more than 25 years and is active in his local church. With a passion for his work at his core, Mr. Young intends to continue growing and operating his resort in the years to come.

WILLIAM YOUNG AT A GLANCE:

As a third-generation business owner, Mr. Young attributes his success to growing up in the business. He learned a great deal and has achieved success by combining his hands-on experience with his education.
